Dear Minnie Mae,
Honestly, there's so much to remember about this year. Especially those new friends I've had all types. I wish I had all day then I could say just addies. You ought to have a lot of relief now that that tooth is out. We're going to have lots of fun next year and all summer. Honestly, you're the sweetest girl I've ever known and I really

PREFACE

In the midst of a war torn world back in September 1944, as the pigskin fans of the nation were looking forward to the coming games of the season, we the class of 1948 were entering one of the many games of a lifetime—our high school career. Aware of the many obstacles, but with confidence in ourselves and those who were to guide us through the four quarters of hard work, we received the kick off and headed for the goal line. It was with this in mind that we selected our theme for the 1948 Hi-Noc-Ar.
 Grady Edwards has presented in the division pages of the four classes a typical student fighting his way throughout the four quarters of the game.
 As the game progressed, we gained experience, confidence, and determination that have brought us across the goal line with the victory that gives us the courage to face the many other games of life.

I hope girl I've been wanting

Best wishes

DEDICATION

To Miss Margaret Ricks and Mrs. Margaret Thigpen, we, the staff of the nineteen hundred and forty-eight Hi-Noc-Ar, respectfully dedicate this volume of our annual. Aside from the subject matter taught, Miss Ricks and Mrs. Thigpen have instilled in us principles of worthy living. Their practical outlooks have helped us make decisions which, we believe will prove of great value throughout our lives. We wish this dedication to serve as an outward testimony to the places they have carved for themselves in our hearts.

With these thoughts clearly in mind, we lovingly dedicate this annual, hoping that it may show our deep appreciation for their work.

M. Thigpen
I don't know whether I've ever seen a meaner or cuter girl.
We wish a sweet home
this summer, won't we.
Love
P. Thigpen

MISS MARGARET RICKS

Graduated from Converse in 1907; began teaching in Edgecombe County with 35 pupils in 9 grades with a total of 54 recitations per day at a salary of forty dollars per month; then taught for two years in Whiteville High School; went back to school and received an M. A. in mathematics at Georgetown College; taught math. for 4 years at St. Mary's School in Raleigh; studied for a year at Peabody College; left Peabody and went to teach in the mountains of Eastern Tennessee, 40 miles from a railroad; following the outbreak of World War 1, returned to Rocky Mount and accepted the job of payroll clerk for A. C. L.; in 1921 began teaching math. in Rocky Mount High School—quote "I have been teaching here ever since, and I still love it."

MRS. MARGARET R. THIGPEN

Graduated from Tarboro Female Academy at 16; private lessons under Superintendent F. S. Wilkinson; taught in a one-room country school near Tarboro; resumed her study at N. C. C. W. in 1904 (then called State Normal and Industrial College); upon graduation in 1908, taught at different intervals in the high schools of Graham, Tarboro and Rocky Mount; married in 1911 and later spent two years in Arizona; returned to North Carolina and lived for eight years in Waynesville; upon death of husband in 1921 returned to Rocky Mount and resumed teaching. In her own words she says, "For twenty seven years I have had the happy (most of the time) privilege of trying to instil in the minds of "young hopefuls" a little Latin, a little English, and I hope a little better way of living in their hearts."

No football game is complete without the half-time activities. It is at this time that the attention of the fans is drawn away from the center of attraction and focused upon the marching of the band, the drill of a crack drill team or the capers of a clown, all of which go to make the enjoyment of the game more complete.

Nannie Mae,
 Always be as nice and sweet as you are now, and every thing will be fine. Lots of luck and happiness. Good

OUT!

So it has been during our high school career. Along with our classroom work, we have found time to enjoy the activities which are necessary for the all around development of a student. In the pages which follow one can find that our student body has an opportunity to develop that special interest which might not be developed in the crowded classroom.

Student Organization

The Student Organization provides an opportunity for all students to participate in the formulation of school policies, to initiate desirable school activities, and to promote the day-by-day work and fun of school life. The Organization has three major divisions: the General Organization, the Class Organization, and the Homeroom Organizations. Through the elected officers of each division, the students are represented in school Administration. Through the work of each division, the students initiate and promote such school activities as the general school dances, the class parties, the operation of the Lost and Found department, the freshman orientation program, the scheduling of assembly programs, the daily maintenance and supervision of the Student Activity Office, and the sponsoring of many money-making projects—Stunt Night, Sophomore Concessions, Junior Magazine Campaigns, and the sale of athletic ribbons. Through homeroom representatives to the General Organization Assembly all students are represented in decisions, informed of plans, and invited to cooperate in projects. In every phase of these activities, the faculty works closely with the students.

The Rocky Mount Student Organization is affiliated with the North Carolina Student Council Congress and the Eastern District Congress. This year it gave three officers to the district, John Thorp, President, Charles Williams, Secretary and Peggy Daughtridge, Treasurer and acted as host for the district meeting on March the tenth. For next year it has given the secretary of the State Organization, Clara Ellen Francis.

The Rocky Mount Organization is also affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils. Through these affiliations, the Rocky Mount Organization is contributing to the development of democratic concepts among school youth throughout the state and the nation.

"THROUGH THE

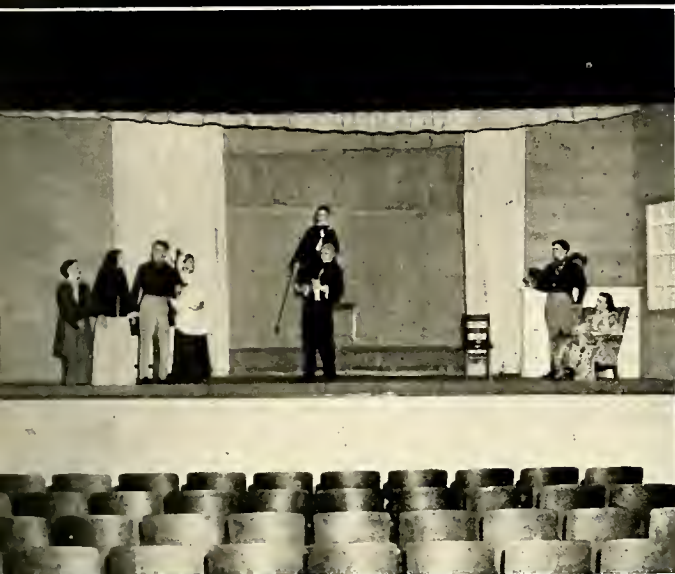

At the top right we find our popular student body president, John Thorp, welcoming the Wilson delegation on their "good will tour." John has ably represented R. M. H. S. in every way this year, and has proved to be one of the best liked student organization officers in many years.

In case you fellows and girls are prone to think of all Wilsonians as athletic rivals we present the group at top left. Mighty attractive group aren't they? Sorry we can't supply phone numbers.

Wonder why Frank Edge looks so amazed? Surely he's been on a train before! Anyhow, we'll bet he'll remember this trip to Wilmington for a long time.

And here we have our own Cheerleaders who literally knocked themselves out getting the student body to yell for "the home team." It takes a hardy soul to be a cheerleader; so—hats off, and a carton of cough drops to our fine crew!

YEAR AT R. M. H. S."

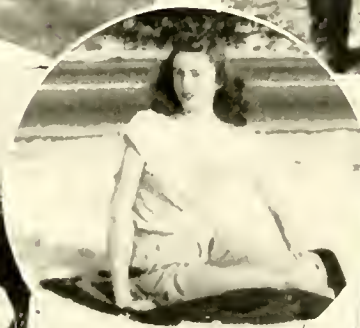

Even though the immortal Charles Dickens never saw Louie Lee Patseavouras, we'll bet he'd say, "That's Tiny Tim all right." And who needs a Lionel Barrymore for Scrooge when Billy Palmer is around?

Billy, Teddy, and Harry give us a good look at what "the well dressed man" of 1855 wore. As you remember, this is a scene from "A Christmas Carol."

Everybody seems to be enjoying the Christmas Dance. This pre-holiday affair is one of the most eagerly anticipated dances of the year. The gym is beautiful with its holiday trimmings, and the big Christmas Tree is the center of attraction.

Is Sherrod Landen looking for someone special? He looks as though he might call for "Chloe" any moment. Clara Ellen and Jimmie; Ann and Raymond seem perfectly content to dance the night away.

PROPHECY

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, this is your own news commentator, Linda Greene, bringing you the outstanding news events of the week. Tonight, I am especially privileged to be broadcasting from the immense auditorium of the Rocky Mount High School, here in Rocky Mount, N. C. Here are gathered the alumni of the class of 1948 for their tenth anniversary. Not only was the class of '48 outstanding, but that class felt itself the most outstanding class in the history of the nation. The majority of the class is now famous and outstanding in their fields of work or what ever they chose to do. I am especially proud to be able to broadcast this meeting to the world because I was a member of that class.

On the first row in the audience I see Le Verne Woodruff, who is the nation's leading orchestra leader. Ten years ago you would have thought that trombone playing and Le Verne would never coincide. Vance Lockamy and L. B. Early are members of the orchestra and Frances "Rise" Garland is the famous Blues Singer.

Ann Duke, the well known bridal counselor, who writes the new social column, "Dearest Darling" is comparing her weekly article with Joyce Elmore's and Eleanor Lockamy's newest book, "Love-Only 18 Miles Away."

Coming in now is the famous swimmer, Carolyn Womble, who has just won world fame as the first woman to swim the Panama Canal-Locks do help swimmers, I understand.

Walking in behind Carolyn is Jerry Winstead, whose beauty shoppe "Jerry's Curly Saloon" in Red Oak has won him much fame.

James Wordsworth, who is the Dramatics Professor here in R. M. H. S. seems to be discussing the art of acting with Jewel Wheelless and Norma Hunney who recently co-starred in "Two Giggling Giggles." Incidentally, Norma is owner of a huge used car lot. She has nothing in her lot but new used cars.

Peggy Keel, who is voice teacher at Greensboro College, and Blake Carter, who teaches voice and piano at Salem, are arguing over which one can hold high "C" the longer.

The football coach here at Rocky Mount High School is Foy Gurganus, who has turned out a fine team of "husky" football players. "Red" Charles is water-boy for this fine team.

Bobby Wester, "Wimp" Rawls, and James Taylor have discovered a chemical that, when sprayed on trees, causes the leaves to turn pink with blue and yellow polka dots. You can thank these three for such a wonderful contribution. They buy their paint from Jack Richardson.

P. Z. Dunn, who owns the "Dunn Did It" rabbit farm, is coming in with Lola Dawson, society editor of "Lo-La-Loo," of which Tom Williams is chief editor. Lola and P. Z. are still music critics in Metropolitan Opera.

Major Billy Palmer, a graduate of West Point, and Col. Bobby Wilson are talking over military strategy.

What is all that noise about in the back? Oh, it's Dot and Warren Flora with their children.

Peggy Gardner appeared in Carnegie Hall last month in her piano recital. Everyone says it was a huge success.

Janie and Jerrie Thompson are owners of a large dress shop, "Thompson's or Else"! !

Jane Spencer and Jake Arnold are U. S. Ambassadors to France. They seem to be speaking French fluently, now.

Jean Smith, Odelle Edwards, Joyce Land, and Nina Jean Fussell are great stenographers for Robert Bennett, who has a modelling school, "Bennett's Beauty Bar." Joyce Tippet, Jean Griffin, Claire Giddeons, and Jean Fambrough are four of Robert's models.

Charles O'Brien, Willis Batts, and Charles Rowe, who left our class for the navy before graduation, are commanding a large fleet in the Artic Ocean.

Dot Bennett and Virginia Matthews are great artists now. Both have traveled abroad painting pictures.

Coming down front are Miriam Davis and Betsy Gehman, who are members of the faculty at W. C. Both are in the Commercial Department.

Billy Mobley now owns a radio shop which he calls "Boddie and Saint" Radio Shop.

Bill Harrell, whom we always knew would be a world famous photographer, is now a great detective in Tarboro. He photographs criminals for pin-up pictures.

David Gurley and John Davis are chief garbage collectors in Wilson.

Pete Carr and Billy Jackson have just introduced a bill in Congress for children to have only three months of school and nine months vacation.

Billy Deans, an F. B. I. agent, was seen on the beach not so long ago with a two gallon bottle of hair restorer trying to get something to cover his shining head. The only result was a severe sunburn.

Last week I was flying across the Andes in South America and discovered that my pilot was J. B. Williams. This, I might add, is quite a contrast to John Johnson, who is still making model airplanes for the Tinker Toy Airplane Co.

Lynn Newnham, Marian Hammond, and Myrtie Ray are the three best known women doctors in Africa.

Bobby Britt is stage manager in Carnegie Hall. His assistants are Jack Rich and Harry Barnhill.

Mary Glenn Walston and Carolyn Harris own a large riding academy in Kentucky.

Howard Pigford and Billy Donaldson have a tumbling act in a well known circus. Right now, Billy is suffering with a broken neck.

Tommie Spikes is coming down the aisle with Garland Barnes. Tommie is the basketball coach at State College while Garland coaches football at State.

Donald Hines and Earl Williams own a large bathhouse called "The Drippy Shower Room."

Carolyn Pierce, "Mop" Johnston, and Anita Rogers have a radio program, "Why Father Left Home." They are sitting with Harry Whitaker and Hoke Branham, who sponsor this trio.

At the firehouse here in town you will find "Bunny" Bunn and Marlton Godwin. If your house is down before they get there see Frank Easterling about insurance.

PROPHECY

Get your rhumba lessons from Jackie (swing it out of joint) Brantley and Elizabeth (get in shape) Browning.

Marjorie Conway Overman has just walked in with her husband. They have recently written a very interesting book, "How to Live on Love."

Don't forget, March 15 is your last day to file your income tax returns—yes, even in 1958. Jean Crawley and Dot Parker will fix it so the government will send you an I. O. U.

The two Doris Jacksons that were in our class have become partners in the "You Lose it-We Find it" Bureau.

Feed your cats and dogs "Pur-better and Wag-more" food. It is produced by Sybil Lanier and Elaine Wynne.

General Hugh Houston is head of the world's police force. For a past time Hugh writes essays for his children. I understand that his children are quite dumb. It is a hard job for Hugh's secretaries, Joyce Kermion and Myrtle Winstead to keep up with Hugh's records.

Who is that spraying her throat? Oh! it's the famous concert artist, Alethia Hale. Jimmie Speight and Jarold Melvin are tuning their instruments. They will perform later.

"Weasel" Page's "Hash House," which offers soupy hash, is located next to Richard Bryant's Funeral Home. Richard covers up "Weasel's" mistakes.

Standing in the lobby are John Thorp and John Patseavouras. They have just made a discovery that automobiles do not have to have a motor to run. It seems that the car runs with some sort of implements called bobby-pins.

Cornelia Eveland, Lettie Weaver, Othell Edwards, and Christine Dew own a Beauty Saloon in Hollywood. They will dye your hair in all the newest shades.

Louise Batchelor is coming in with Mary Carroll Futch. These two prominent ladies own the "Run 'em Around" race track, the largest anywhere.

Earl Walker and Gerald Plummer are co-owners of the "Wal-Plu" car repair service. Their motto is "We tear 'em down, you build 'em back." Coming in with them is William Earl Horne, owner of the "We get you there on time or die trying" Taxi Co.

Ben Thomas, who was selected as best dressed man of 1958, is now on internationally famous radio announcer. He is sitting with Jona Ayscue and Geraldine Batts, who design hats.

Dot Sutton and Nancy Osborn are making a tour over the nation to see how many people use tooth-paste.

Charles Starling, Richard Owen, and Billy Barnhill are the three muskateers of the west. Their Soda Shop won them fame.

Seated down front are Ben Becknell and George Braswell, who own the "Killum Quick" Flea Powder Concern.

Jean Woodlief and Irma Ethridge have a job bending paper clips while Doris Proctor and Peggy Barnes test zippers in a zipper factory.

Madgeline Layton and Julia Timberlake have recently written a book on how to reduce—just don't eat.

Estelle Flye is the Spanish Teacher in Battleboro. She is coming in with Paul Langley, who is president of the University of Battleboro.

Jean Cockrell and Mayo Boddie who are enjoying married life are trying to get advice on how to bring up Mayo, Jr. Fannie Carr, a child psychologist, is giving them advice.

While coming through Richmond I saw Shirley Holland, who is train dispatcher there. In the ticket office I saw Horace Ward.

Here comes two members of the class, Oscar Capps and Yates Proctor. They are in business together making Tiddly-Winks.

Nancy Maples, local golf pro, is teaching golf in R. M. H. S.

Betty Bell is playing the part of Baby Snooks on the radio. She has stiff competition. Billy Wheelless substitutes for Lou Costello on the program following Betty's.

Jeanne Griffin and her husband are now operating the new "Sub-Way Connecting Rocky Mount and Nashville."

Tommy Smith has developed a banana with a skid proof peeling. He works with Bruce Brigman who has recently developed a cucumber which has dimples.

Now a thrill for the ladies of the audience. Harry Fowler and Alvin Hooks, the two most handsome heartbreakers in Hollywood, have just finished a picture, "All This and Women Too."

Doug Bryant and Alton Daniel are standing in the back looking the crowd over. They are detectives in Nashville.

Sitting down front is Janice Murchison, who is editing a series of books entitled, "How to Eat and Get Slim." Incidentally, Janice owns a Lincoln Continental Convertable now. Sitting next to Janice is her "old flame," Bernice Smith, who, by the way, is still a batchelor. Bernice was recently promoted from vice-president to president of the Twin County Motor Company.

Carol Williams, William Waddell, and John Lewis Hardy are bankers in Dinwadiddie. Their motto is "Your deposits are our gains."

Lois Carpenter recently lectured to a group on "Why go to sleep?" Sara Jo Bell, owner of the "Softy-Softy" mattress company, is giving Lois an answer.

Jo Ann Lewis is treasurer of the U. S. now. Working with her is Margaret Brown, who helps Jo Ann take care of the unaccounted for money.

Coming down the aisle now are Frances Faithful, Betsy Bunn, Thelma Odom and Margaret Harrison, who have been exploring the ruins of Japan.

I wish I had time to broadcast the entire meeting to you, but I see that my time is up. So, until next week at this same time, this is your correspondent, Linda Greene, signing off.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

City of Rocky Mount
County of Edgecombe
State of North Carolina

We, the members of the 1948 team, realizing that our years of eligibility in high school have expired and realizing that our four years training in education has sharply come to an end, do hereby devise and bequeath any and all our trophies, real or personal, to those who follow in our lineup; we therefore declare our last will and testament, being of sound mind and state of confusion, recognizing the fact of this being our last opportunity to express our wishes and desires to those who don the black and gold uniform after us. All of which having been given deep thought and reverence, we do leave the following:

ITEM 1. We do hereby state our sincere thanks to all members of the student body and the faculty for any help which they have given us in making our school years more beneficial. Especially we do give our hearty thanks to Mr. Wilson, Mr. Johnson, Miss Bond, Mrs. Farmer, Miss Parker, and Mr. Cleetwood, for helping us in our hours of trial and error.

ITEM 2. I, Hugh Houston, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge of education and learning to Jimmy Rae Moore with the request that he uphold the high standards of my achievements.

ITEM 3. We, the members of the 12-C English Class, do leave all old jokes and anecdotes to those who follow through the portals of 302 in the hope that Mr. Edson will have to learn some new rib-ticklers and corn-crunchers.

ITEM 4. I, Alvin Hooks, do leave my athletic ability to Bo Thorp in the hope that someday he will be able to don the uniform of the black and gold for R. M. H. S.

ITEM 5. I, John Thorp, do leave my ability of leadership of the students of hereupon said premises to anyone who feels he has thereupon said talent.

ITEM 6. We, the members of the 1948 Hi-Noc-Ar Staff, do leave all our headaches and dreams of making the best annual yet to Jane Thomas, Nancy Yelverton, Jim Thorp, Hugh Pearson and the staff to be of the 1949 Hi-Noc-Ar.

ITEM 7. I, Bill Page, do leave and bequeath my art of tennis racquet dusting to Blake Hardison with the desire that he lead Rocky Mount's offensive tennis team against the aggressive forces of Eastern Carolina.

ITEM 8. I, Janice Murchison, do leave my ever-present smile and cheerfulness to Lucy Ann Boddie in order that she may continue to be so good-natured.

ITEM 9. We, the gruesome twosome, Billy Deans and Ben Thomas, do leave and bequeath our never ending will to keep up the fight against the fifth and sixth years of high school to the poor unfortunate juniors who follow in our steps.

ITEM 10. We, the members of the Senior Class do leave behind us memories of four happy years in high school.

Subscribed, sealed, published, and declared by the graduating class of 1948 as and for its last will and testament in the presence of each of us named below.

Witnesses:

Our Principal,
D. S. Johnson
Our Collector of Revenue,
Mrs. Carr
Our Dear Friend and Teacher,
Mr. Privott

MY PROMISE

My head held up, my spirits high,
I greet years yet to pass,
From what they hold I will not shy,
No matter how much they ask.

I'll greet each task with a new found zeal,
Each heartache, each trouble, each woe,
I'll prove to the world my depth is real,
To opportunities I'll never say no.

I'll try to make the world a better place,
I'll work hard and I'll play too,
Competitors and I will have our chase,
And never will I say, "I'm through."

I'll try to be kind and never "big,"
My fellow man always in mind,
I'll take my spade and with it I'll dig,
Stopping to have fun along the line.

This is my promise to you, big world,
With God's help I'll try to keep it,
The wings of the future are now unfurled,
With open arms I run to meet it.

Rocky Mount's favorite young Political Leader and ex-Speaker of The House, Mr. Thomas Pearsall, speaks at the fall initiation ceremonies of The National Honor Society.

Lynn Newnham, senior class beauty is being tapped by Linda Greene. Membership in The National Honor Society is based on Character, Service, Leadership and Scholarship. Being elected to this group is one of the highest honors that can come to a student.

And here's the band really giving out at the "Beat Wilson" prep rally at the Center Theatre.

Mr. Johnson is speaking to the folks at the Center Theatre. Where in the world did Robert and Deans get those Blackbird outfits? Perhaps some discontented crow got tired of them.

YEAR AT R. M. H. S."

The fellows in one of the freshman gym classes are really having an easy time of it. I suppose they've just come in from one of their jaunts to the fair grounds or somewhere.

Dan Herring is the guy with the ball in the action shot above. It's the Henderson-R. M. H. S. game in case you'd like to know.

Now those Latin students really introduced a novelty when they had their Roman Banquet. One glance at them is enough to know that "Roman style eating" is really the stuff.

Junior-Senior 1947. The highlight of the school's social program. This time we danced in a lovely spring garden. It was indeed a memorable occasion!

have been fun being with you these past two years,
I hope the next two will be as much fun. Best of luck to you always. I think you are tops.
Love ya,

Beliefs of the

UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS

For World Government with Limited
Powers Adequate to Prevent War

Statements of Beliefs:

WE BELIEVE that peace is not merely the absence of war, but the presence of justice, of law, of order—in short, of government and the institution of government; that world peace can be created and maintained only under a world federal government, universal and strong enough to prevent armed conflict between the nations, and having direct jurisdiction over the individual in those matters within its authority.
